Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

Once we receive the requested information, your household's eligibility for enrollment in a health plan may change. If you enroll in a QHP and are eligible for advanced premium tax credits (APTC) and/or cost-sharing benefits, you could receive a higher tax credit or more assistance with out-of-pocket costs, or you may get less financial help and have to pay back some or all of the tax credit that you received during this period when you file your federal taxes for that year.
